

Speak out! A forum in Auburn will be held at MTA Auburn Regional Office, 48 Sword Street, Auburn, MA on Thursday, September 25, 2014 at 5:00 p.m.

MTA members across the state will be holding similar forums and sharing their ideas for action.

- How has the focus on high-stakes testing hurt teaching and learning in your school?
- How well is the new educator evaluation system working?
- Are there other local, state or federal initiatives that take too much time away from teaching?

To RSVP for the forum, please e-mail Carolyn Himottu or Becky Austin at rsvpcmass@massteacher.org or call 508-791-2121.

MTA President Barbara Madeloni will be facilitating this event. Come meet the new president and let her and other MTA leaders know what you think about important education and union issues.
